V. Coronavirus Release and Hold Harmless Agreement:

The current worldwide coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and associated government-mandated "shelter-in-place" and similar orders in many communities underscore the risks associated for individuals viewing or inspecting a property occupied by sellers or tenants, and the risks for sellers and tenants of allowing prospective home inspectors to enter the property they occupy.

I/we understand that personal contact with others, including, but not limited to, home inspectors during this COVID-19 outbreak involves a certain degree of risk which could result in illness, permanent disability, or death.

After carefully considering the risks involved, and in consideration of the Inspection Company's willingness to conduct the inspection, I/we hereby release and hold harmless (Inspection Company) and the Inspection Company's client(s), owners, officers, employees, contractors, agents, heirs, assigns, etc.) from any liability, including but not limited to COVID-19 related claims or of any kind of claim whatsoever, including injury or death claims, arising or allegedly arising out of Inspection Company's inspection of the property at {{ADDRESS}} (the property), regardless of the theory of recovery asserted, including, but not limited to claims based on allegations of negligence. I/we intend this release to be the broadest release allowed by law.

For the safety of all concerned, the Inspection Company has requested that I/we keep a safe distance from the inspector during the inspection. If we fail to do so, I/we assume all risk and I/we understand the inspector may terminate the inspection.

I/we further agree that no others (including minors) shall be present during the inspection. If I/we permit such others to be present in violation of this document, I/we agree to defend and indemnify the Inspection Company in connection with any claims of any kind made by such others, regardless of the theory asserted.

This agreement will be governed by Texas law. The exclusive venue for any disputes arising out of this document shall be in Montgomery County, TX, where the Inspection Company has its principal place of business. In any such action, I/we waive trial by jury and agree that the court must award attorney's fees and costs to the prevailing party.

VI. Dispute Resolution:

In the event a dispute arises regarding an inspection which has been performed under this agreement, the Client agrees to notify the Inspector in writing, within ten (10) days of the date the Client discovers the basis for the dispute so as to give the Inspector a reasonable opportunity to re-inspect the property. The client agrees to allow re-inspection before any corrective action is taken. The Client agrees not to disturb or repair or have repaired anything which might constitute evidence relating to a complaint against the Inspector. The Client further agrees that the Inspector can either conduct the re-inspection himself or can employ others (at Inspector(s) expense) to reinspect the property or both. In the event a dispute cannot be resolved by the Client and the Inspector, the parties agree that any dispute or controversy shall be resolved by mandatory and binding arbitration under the Texas Arbitration Act in Montgomery County, Texas. The arbitration panel must include at least one licensed home inspector.

VII. Attorney(s) Fees:

The Inspector and the Client agree that in the event any dispute or controversy arises as a result of this Agreement, and the services provided hereunder, the prevailing party in that dispute shall be entitled to recover all of the prevailing party(s) reasonable and necessary attorney's fees and costs incurred by that party.

VIII. Exclusivity:

The Inspection Report is to be prepared exclusively for the Client named and is not transferable to anyone in any form. The client gives permission for the Inspector to discuss report findings with real estate agents, specialists, or repair persons for the sake of clarification. A copy of the Inspection Report may be released to the selling Real Estate Agent.
